

Communing with Nature

"As the veils of this world and the hidden lands of Spirit thin let us remember the once forgotten language of the heart, so that we can join with our hidden brothers and sisters thought long gone from our memories" - Mother Mary
Come join Mother Mary, Teacher, and Mother Earth as they help us remember this larger family of Earth. Learn your Heart Song and begin communing with Nature.

This wonderful three-day retreat on beautiful Whidbey Island will include lectures, healing, sauna, meditations, and a special guest channel Mark Neumann with Teacher.

Raven Many Voices has been a channel for the Divine and Mother Mary for the last 10 years. Blending her humor with a down to earth style she creates a space for all to be welcomed and loved.
